Ohioans Hurry To Register For Primary

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohioans swarmed into county boards of elections around the state Monday by the thousands to beat the deadline for voter registration for the May 2 primary.

Record numbers registered in several large cities.

"It's been one hell of a day," said one weary employee at the Franklin County Board of Elections in Columbus, where it was expected more than 3,000 would register before the 9 p.m. closing time.

Maurice Allen, deputy director of the Hamilton County Board of Elections, said the 2,500 who registered at his offices Monday was a record for the last day before a primary election.

Election officials in Cleveland counted 3,000 new voters, which pushed total registration for the primary to more than 810,000, a record and the first time the figure has topped 800,000 since 1960.

Some officials attributed the flood of registrants to a federal court ruling in Columbus last week that temporarily knocked out Ohio's six-month residency requirement.

Others noted that students at nearby colleges and universities and even local high schools had organized voter registration drives and provided transportation to the election booths.

At Ravenna, a Kent State University student group kept six cars shuttling students and Kent residents back and forth between Kent and the Portage County board of elections.

Election director Ralph Wright said a "continuous stream" of would-be voters began at 9 a.m. Monday and added as the 9 p.m. deadline approached that "they're still lined up four deep."

Lucas County Board of Elections chairman John Kelly gave high school and college student registration drives the credit for "the heaviest primary we've ever had by far in my 25 years in this office."

Bomb Blast Kills Cuban Trade Official

MONTREAL (AP) — Two dynamite blasts at the Cuban Trade Mission on the top floor of a Montreal office building early today killed one Cuban official and injured a second.

Seven other Cuban officials were later detained by Montreal police who accused them of preventing investigation of the explosions while they tried to burn their files.

The powerful blasts came within 15 seconds of each other shortly after midnight and demolished three rooms of the 12th-floor trade mission suite in Montreal's north end. Bricks, glass and other debris rained into the street.

The explosions set off a running dispute between Montreal police and Cuban officials, some carrying automatic weapons and some identifying themselves as members of Cuba's embassy in Ottawa.

Police Lt. Larry Lewis said they were being held to "clarify their status."

The Cuban Embassy in Ottawa confirmed the death of one trade mission official but declined to confirm the presence of any of its officials in Montreal.

Following the blasts, four heavily armed Cubans guarding the mission tried to bar investigating officers. They were arrested after one punched a police inspector in the nose but later freed on orders of the Canadian government in Ottawa, police said.

The men came back and "started burning documents as they were afraid that we were going to try to go through their files," Inspector Leopold Roy said.

Ohio Senate OKs Strip Mine Bill; Sent To House

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Senate today passed 30-0 a strip mine bill that sponsors claim will be one of the toughest in the nation.

The measure must now go back to the House, which is expected to concur in 19 Senate committee amendments.

The measure was first introduced in the House 15 months ago.

Sen. Oakley Collins, R-18 Ironton, a strip mine operator and a member of the Urban and Affairs Highways Committee which heard the bill, invoked a seldom used conflict of interest rule and received permission not to vote.

Two senators, David S. Holcomb R-6 Dayton, and William W. Taft, R-26 Cleveland, were absent.

The bill was carried on the Senate floor by Sens. Harry L. Armstrong, R-17 Logan and

GI Benefits Under Study

Expect Congress To Sweeten Pot

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress is expected to improve GI-Bill benefits for Vietnam veterans this year, but it is not yet clear when the lawmakers will act or how much they will provide.

Most observers readily concede that educational benefits available to Vietnam veterans are not as good as those provided for troops who returned from World War II and the Korean War.

The House already has approved a 48-percent increase in apprentice and on-the-job training programs, more money for job and school counseling, steps designed to cut red tape, and making some benefits available to veterans with less-than-honorable discharges.

The House also has called for a 14-percent hike in individual payments to veterans who return to school. That's higher than the 8-percent boost recommended by the Nixon administration, but Senate Veterans Affairs Committee Chairman Vance Hartke, D-Ind., has proposed pay increases up to nearly 40 per cent.

Hartke says his bill would bring Vietnam veterans' benefits up to the level enjoyed by World War II veterans by translating World War II benefit figures into 1972 dollars.

The Indiana senator's legislation would raise monthly benefits for single veterans going to school from the current $175 to $244. Married veterans would receive $285 instead of $205, and those married with one child would get $326 instead of $230.

Moms Feed Tots At Pool

SANTA CRUZ, Calif. (AP) — The only public swimming pool in Santa Cruz is allowing mothers to breast-feed their infants at the pool.

Three of the mothers did so Monday without interference. Last Friday, however, officials had asked one mother to stop.

"We're just not going to make any big deal about it," said Paul Thiltgen, the city's recreation superintendent. "The reason we acted in the first place (on Friday) was because we received a complaint."

He said there were no complaints Monday.

Four young nursing mothers, members of a group called the "Swim for Lunch Bunch," said in a statement that they had the right "to feed our babies anywhere."

MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — About 1.5 million Wisconsin voters are expected to cast ballots today in the state's presidential primary election. Gov. Patrick J. Lucey, a Democrat who has remained neutral, predicted Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota would be the Democratic winner.

Blood Needed By Open Heart Patients

The American Red Cross Bloodmobile will visit Circleville Thursday, April 6 at the Community United Methodist Church from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Importance of a successful visit was stressed today by C. P. Pfeleger, Pickaway County Blood Program chairman. In addition to the routine usage, at least seven open-heart surgeries have been performed since Jan. 1 or are scheduled in the near future for Pickaway County residents.

Friends or relatives may make replacement for Mrs. Charles Henson and Clell McNeal, patients at Cleveland Clinic or Jenny Brown, age 8, who will undergo her second open-heart surgery on April 27 at Children's Hospital.

Those who donated blood at the last visit February 24 will not be eligible to give on Thursday, since the required eight weeks have not elapsed.

A special request has been received by the Pickaway County Red Cross Chapter to recruit twelve O-Positive blood donors for Thursday especially for a 7-year-old girl who will have open-heart surgery on the following day. It is important that O-Positive donors bring their donor cards, so that their type can be readily identified.

Prospective donors are requested to call the chapter, 474-5736 for an appointment to be scheduled at a time when it will not be necessary to wait in line.

Spring Storm In Midwest Trails Rain

A spring storm over the Ohio Valley spread sleet and freezing rain through northwestern Pennsylvania today and trailed a band of showers southward to the lower Mississippi Valley.

Travel warnings were posted for northwestern Pennsylvania, where the sleet and freezing rain was expected to change to snow.

Northwest of the storm center, snow flurries dusted parts of eastern Michigan.

The mercury slid near zero in northern Minnesota, and freeze warnings were in effect as far south as Oklahoma.

Light snow sifted into New England, and spring rain fell in the Pacific Northwest. But weather over the rest of the nation was mainly fair and dry.

Ohio 6th In Nation In Airport Numbers

WASHINGTON (AP) — Ohio ranks sixth in the nation in airports, according to a Federal Aviation Administration report.

Texas leads with 1,128 landing facilities, followed by Alaska, California, Illinois and Pennsylvania.

U.S. Won't Enter Ground Fight; Air Strikes Eyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon has ruled out for now the reintroduction of U.S. ground forces to repel the enemy thrust into South Vietnam. But he is holding open his option of sending waves of American war planes against North Vietnamese targets.

The President's stance was reported by reliable sources after Nixon and his top advisers held an urgent round of conferences Monday to ponder ways of countering the strong Communist push since Tet of 1968.

As the strategy sessions continue, administration spokesmen are stressing that turning back the Communist offensive is a "South Vietnamese operation."

Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler used that phrase twice at a Monday briefing where he reported Nixon was "watching the situation very closely."

Ziegler also cited as "totally reflective of the over-all administration view" a statement by State Department spokesman Robert J. McCloskey that the North Vietnamese attack was an invasion across the demilitarized zone in violation of the 1968 "understanding" between the United States and North Vietnam.

That 1968 understanding—although never acknowledged by North Vietnam—led President Lyndon B. Johnson to suspend

U.S. Warships, Planes Pound North Viets

SAIGON (AP) — South Vietnamese forces lost two more bases in their northernmost province today as U.S. air and naval forces hit the invading North Vietnamese.

The South Vietnamese commander in the north said the enemy invasion across the demilitarized zone had been stopped after five days.

But Associated Press correspondent Holger Jensen reported from the front that the South Vietnamese navy abandoned its northern base at the mouth of the Cua Viet River Monday night after three days of heavy enemy attacks.

And today Fire Base Anne, eight miles southwest of Quang Tri City, was reported to have fallen.

This raised to 14 the number of South Vietnamese bases reported lost since the North Vietnamese invaded last Thursday.

The South Vietnamese command denied reports earlier from Vietnamese military sources that government troops had made an amphibious landing at the Cua Viet estuary, which is nine miles northeast of the main enemy invasion force at Dong Ha.

The reports apparently resulted from misreading of an operational plan not yet put into effect.

Jensen reported that U.S. destroyers shelled the area around the mouth of the river this morning after several enemy amphibious tanks tried to cross from the northern bank. The abandoned base was on the south bank.

Saigon's northern commander, Lt. Gen. Hoang Xuan Lam, said the main body of the invasion force had been halted at Dong Ha despite operations of other enemy forces at scattered points to the south.

The South Vietnamese command said one of its armored columns ran into heavy fighting just below Dong Ha and reported

Angela Davis Jury Hears Soledad Brothers Demand

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — A photographer and three law enforcement officers testified at the Angela Davis murder-kidnap-conspiracy trial that they heard shouted demands at the Marin County Civic Center shootout to free the Soledad Brothers.

But in testimony Monday the four men, who were in the same courthouse corridor, all remembered different phrases called out during the minutes when three black convicts and an accomplice took Superior Court Judge Harold J. Haley and four others hostage. Four were slain, including the judge.

The state claims that Miss Davis furnished guns and helped engineer the Aug. 7, 1970, violence because she was driven by passion to free George Jackson, one of the Soledad Brothers.

Jackson and the others—Fleeta Drumgo and John Cluchette—were accused of killing a white guard at Soledad Prison.

Drumgo and Cluchette were acquitted of the charges March 27 but Jackson was killed in what authorities said was an escape attempt.

Miss Davis, 28, has pleaded innocent.

The trial will resume Wednesday.

Photographer James Kean of the San Rafael Independent-Journal testified that the kidnapers invited him to photograph the abortive escape try. He said convict William Christman told him: "We are the revolutionaries."

Kean said that as the hostages were being led to a courthouse elevator convict James McClain said: "Tell them we want the Soledad Brothers released by 12 o'clock."

Marin County Sheriff's Capt. Harvey Teague, who followed Kean to the witness stand, said he was also standing near the elevator when the kidnapers were leading the hostages out. Just as the elevator doors were about to close, Teague said, "I heard something about you have until 12 noon to free the Soledad Brothers and all political prisoners."

That 1968 understanding—although never acknowledged by North Vietnam—led President Lyndon B. Johnson to suspend bombing raids deep into North Vietnamese territory.

The McCloskey-Ziegler statements seemed to leave open the possibility of restoring U.S. air strikes well inside North Vietnam — a possibility later reinforced by disclosure of Nixon's position.

The sources' use of the word "reintroduction" in relation to U.S. ground forces apparently would allow Nixon to order remaining American combat troops to repulse any Communist attack on U.S. installations.

Nixon declared months ago that the U.S. ground-combat role had ended, and his reluctance to send U.S. troops into battle now fits with his expressed confidence that South Vietnam is prepared to withstand the long-expected Communist offensive.

Bus March Continues

FOLLANSBEE, W. Va. (AP) — "With each new ache and pain, I think I get more distressed with the people in Washington," Irene McCabe says of her hike to Washington to rally opposition to forced school busing.

The reception she and her four sister marchers have gotten in this area of West Virginia's Northern Panhandle and in Northern Ohio has been "very gratifying," she said Monday. The people they are meeting "don't want their youngsters bused away any more than I do."

They walked 13 miles Monday, advancing to slightly beyond this industrial town.

"We were doing 16 miles a day until we hit this hilly country."

West Middleton, W. Va., is their destination tonight, with Wednesday as a day off to rest. Then, the Pontiac, Mich., housewife and her followers head on toward Washington, Pa., and south through Maryland to Washington in time for an April 27 rally at the Washington monument.

Their trek over the Ohio River Monday brought them into contact with an issue Mrs. McCabe admitted she "could become involved in"—air pollution from a steel mill.

Bus March Continues

FOLLANSBEE, W. Va. (AP) — "With each new ache and pain, I think I get more distressed with the people in Washington," Irene McCabe says of her hike to Washington to rally opposition to forced school busing.

The reception she and her four sister marchers have gotten in this area of West Virginia's Northern Panhandle and in Northern Ohio has been "very gratifying," she said Monday. The people they are meeting "don't want their youngsters bused away any more than I do."

They walked 13 miles Monday, advancing to slightly beyond this industrial town.

"We were doing 16 miles a day until we hit this hilly country," West Middleton, W. Va., is their destination tonight, with Wednesday as a day off to rest. Then, the Pontiac, Mich., housewife and her followers head on toward Washington, Pa., and south through Maryland to Washington in time for an April 27 rally at the Washington monument.

Their trek over the Ohio River Monday brought them into contact with an issue Mrs. McCabe admitted she "could become involved in"—air pollution from a steel mill.

Body Of Boy Found In Trash At Boardman

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — The body of a 12-year-old boy was found today in a trash container behind a dairy store at Boardman Plaza, police said.

The boy was identified as Bradley Bellino, who had been reported missing Saturday. The Mahoning County Coroner said the Boardman Township youth died of strangulation. He said a belt was found wrapped around young Bellino's neck.

Police said the body was found by an employee of a trash collection firm while making a routine pickup at the dairy store.

Paul Smith removed some of the trash and found legs sticking up from the container. When he dug deeper, he discovered the body, police said.

Chlorine Removal Continues

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Removal of chlorine from a barge wedged in a dam on the Ohio River has cost "thousands and thousands of dollars," officials say, and the courts will be asked to determine liability for the accident.

The barge became jammed in a gate of the McAlpine Dam downstream of Louisville following a river accident March 19.

It took chemical experts and federal and state officials nearly two weeks to devise a plan for removing the chlorine from the barge without letting the chemical escape. Chlorine is a poisonous gas when it mixes with air.

Meanwhile, the liquid chlorine is being pumped through two-inch pipes from tanks on the disabled barge to an empty barge, tied nearby in calm water. Nitrogen is being used to force the chlorine through the pipes.

Officials expect to empty two of the tanks, containing about 160 tons of chlorine apiece, within a day or two. But the remaining two tanks are partially submerged in the rear of the barge, where it is jammed into the concrete dam, and officials say the removal operation could present problems there.

Col. John Rhett, Louisville district engineer for the Army Corps of Engineers, said most of the chlorine in the rear tanks will have to be released in gaseous form through pipes to a reactor, where it will be neutralized and released into the river in "harmless" concentrations below the dam.

"We have stopped them now," Lam declared, "but we don't know if they will attack more. They have taken very heavy casualties. They have stopped for resupply and reorganization."

Lam estimated that allied air, ground and naval forces had killed 2,000 North Vietnamese troops in six days of the bloodiest fighting since the South Vietnamese invaded Laos 13 months ago. He said 200 South Vietnamese troops had been killed and 600 wounded.

The general said the northernmost defense line set up by South Vietnamese marines on the south bank of the Dong Ha River was holding. But he said 40,000 to 50,000 enemy troops were believed between the river and the DMZ 10 miles to the north.

Some 20,000 South Vietnamese troops were thrown into the counteroffensive, and 5,000 reinforcements were on their way north.

Lam said the North Vietnamese objective appeared to be to attack Quang Tri City, 19 miles south of the DMZ and the capital of Quang Tri Province.

He reported that air and artillery strikes had destroyed 50 of the enemy's PT-76 light amphibious tanks, but other sources put the figure at 39. The U.S. 7th Fleet said one of its guided missile destroyers, the Buchanan, got four of the tanks.

The 7th Fleet committed five destroyers and four aircraft carriers with a total of 275 planes to the counteroffensive.

IRA, British Troops Duel; No One Hurt

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Irish Republican Army guerrillas fought British troops today in a Belfast district where the IRA has lost some of its Roman Catholic support.

No one was hurt in the Andersonstown gunfight, and the shooting was seen as a defiant IRA gesture to show that its word is still law in the heavily Catholic district.

It came after more than 2,000 Andersonstown Catholics attended a funeral Monday for a slain mother in a protest against the IRA's continuing violence despite British peace moves.

Catholic women trying to hold a meeting Monday night to urge an IRA truce were drowned out by jeering IRA women sympathizers.

In Dublin an IRA leader assailed an appeal by William Cardinal Conway, Catholic primate of all Ireland, for an end to the IRA's war of independence in the north.

Despite fears of major trouble, Northern Ireland got through the long Easter weekend without fatalities.

William Whitelaw, Britain's new government minister for Northern Ireland, moved into his provincial headquarters at Stormont Castle, completing a transfer of power that ended 51 years of local majority Protestant rule and opened the way to granting concessions to the minority Catholics.

One of Whitelaw's first tasks as peacemaker will be deciding how many IRA suspects he can release from the controversial internment camps where men are being held without trial. Phasing out internment is a key part of the British peace plan.

Ohio Senate

(Continued from Page 1) he expected no trouble in getting the lower house to go along with Senate changes. But he expected it would be Thursday before a vote was taken.

The bill would eliminate the so-called high walls left by strip mining operations unless the mine operator can prove to the chief of the Division of Forestry and Reclamation that leaving the cliffs would be for the best future use of the land. Otherwise the operators must backfill or grade the high wall to a slope of no more than 35 degrees or as close to the natural contour as possible.

Meshel said he felt the Senate's 19 amendments helped the bill, enabling both the environmentalists and the strip mine operators to reach a compromise each could live with.

Pentagon Keeps Silence On Vietnam War Action

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five days after the start of the long-awaited enemy offensive, the Pentagon is either unwilling or unable to say what's going on in Vietnam.

Official spokesmen acknowledged the obvious—that the North Vietnamese have launched an attack, that the weather is bad and the situation "is fluid." They said the offensive will not affect U.S. withdrawal. But they declined to say much else about ground combat.

Pentagon spokesman Jerry W. Friedheim told reporters Monday that with the United States virtually out of the ground war the offensive is South Vietnam's show and details will have to come from Saigon. Presidential Press Secretary Ronald L. Ziegler expressed similar comments.

The attitude reflects what has now become U.S. policy—that it's South Vietnam's war despite the continued heavy U.S. air involvement.

And, with the Nixon administration trying to defuse the war as a political issue at home, it's talking less about it.

In the past, official Washington spokesmen regularly briefed newsmen on the situation in Indochina. A year ago, for example, when South Vietnamese forces crossed into Laos to destroy enemy supply lines in Operation Lam Son 719, administration spokesmen detailed its progress and trumpeted what they claimed to be its success.

Newsmen asked why the change.

"There is some considerable difference between the situation ... a year ago in that we had U.S. units heavily committed to the support of the Lan Son operation," Friedheim said. "There are no U.S. ground units involved" in the current action.

City Fire Fighters Answer Three Calls

The Circleville Fire Department answered three calls Monday.

At 1:45 p.m. they were called to a grass fire on Fairlawn Drive. The blaze was believed caused by children playing with matches.

At 6:20 p.m. a car owned by Harry Kocher Jr., 455 John St., backed fire through the car-buretor. Damage was estimated at $15.

At 10:35 p.m. the department was called to Ralston-Purina when a feed ingredient in a box car ignited. There was no loss reported.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

Lift Job — Face, Fore and Aft

DEAR ABBY: I have a friend who is about my age, 55. Adele lost her husband last year, she went to California for the winter to visit her sister. When Adele came back, nobody recognized her. She looked like a 25-year-old girl. And beautiful! She had a whole new face and a new figure. It was unbelievable! Adele admitted to having a face lift, which was obvious, but she said she also had her bust and behind lifted!

Now I've heard of silicone implants to lift and fill out sagging breasts, but I have never heard of anyone having her behind lifted, have you?

What kind of doctor does this work? I would really like to know because if it can be done I might want to have mine lifted.

LOW SLUNG IN BROOKLYN
DEAR LOW: Yes, it can be done. Some plastic surgeons do it. Since Adele appears to speak so frankly about it, ask her who lifted her behind. She'll probably be glad to tell you unless she intends to sit on it forever.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a sports nut. He monopolizes the color TV and the children and I miss some of our favorite programs.

Last Christmas I thought I would solve that problem, so I bought him a portable TV. This worked fine for a while, but pretty soon he started setting the portable on top of the big one, and he'd watch both of them, tuned into different sports channels. He is the only man I know who can watch a hockey game and a football game at the same time!

By the way, the small TV has ear plugs, so I only have to contend with the noise of the big one.

Any suggestions?

Unwed Fathers Given Break

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court Monday ruled, 5 to 2, that states may not automatically take away the children of unwed fathers.

Dealing with an appeal of a Chicago man, the court said a natural parent—male or female—should have a chance to prove his fitness.

"It may be, as the state insists, that most unmarried fathers are neglectful parents," said Justice Byron R. White. "... But all unmarried fathers are not in this category. Some are wholly suited to have custody of their children."

DEAR ANTI: You have a super-selfish husband there, lady. Tell him that as long as the family can afford two TV's, it's one to a customer.

DEAR ABBY: This is the first letter I have ever written to your column, but your reply to the woman who wondered if she should make a report when she saw a pocketbook being stolen really hit home.

When I learned that my teenage daughter (and her friends) were stealing clothes from the local department store, I called the store's protection office and tearfully requested an appointment to bring my daughter in with the clothes. The merchandise was priced, and I paid for it. My daughter was given a stern lecture and told what would happen to her if she ever repeated this act in their store again. And I, incidentally, was told by the young lady in the store's protection office that in the two years she had worked there I was the first mother ever to do this, even though she was certain that there were other mothers who had found strange merchandise in their homes that they new their money did not buy.

Abby, that was four years ago, and I thank God that I had the backbone to do what I did because from that day to this I have never had any reason to suspect my daughter of taking a penny that does not belong to her. It was a bitter lesson for both of us, but an effective one.

I would like to quote the words from a sign I saw in the protection office on that eventful day:

"To watch a crime in silence is to commit one." Sincerely,
WITHHOLD MY NAME AND TOWN

CONFIDENTIAL TO
"ASHAMED OF MY HUSBAND:" Tell him that a man who does not take care to sit in a gentlemanly position can be as offensive as a woman who doesn't sit in a ladylike position.

"I got my kiss. I'm happy," bubbled a nervous volunteer in Superior after Muskie kissed her left cheek.

"I'm really impressed with his charm, but that doesn't mean I agree with him politically," explained a hospital worker in Milwaukee when Lindsay walked by her office.

And in Frederick's of Hollywood, an emporium of fuchsia-colored nighties with fur trim, which McGovern innocently entered during a handshake tour of a Greendale shopping center, it was a case of useless admiration. "He's great for coming in here. Most men kind of slide by," said an amused saleswoman. "But I'm a Republican. I'm voting for Nixon."

In short, when Wisconsin women go to the polls in Tuesday's primary, they will not vote as a bloc.

They will not even necessarily vote along party lines, since the state does not require registration by party. But certain patterns have emerged:

—Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota seems to radiate the most emotional appeal to well-fed, middle-aged, ebullient women who tend to be Democratic regulars. If they are not union members, their husbands may be.

—Sen. Edmund S. Muskie of Maine, who shares the party faithful and the workers with Humphrey, draws less hysterical crowds peppered with women who tend to describe him as "a plain man" and "a father image."

—Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota, who turns on the quiet campus faster than any of his rivals, sends his envelopes to women who prefer the title "Ms." They cheer as loudly at rallies as their male counterparts and are not infrequently seen at marches on Washington.

—Gov. George C. Wallace of Alabama, like Humphrey and Muskie, attracts blue collar women who tend to let their husbands and sons do the shouting at the Wallace rallies.

—Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York is the admitted second choice of many McGovern women. He has the golden-boy sex appeal that makes waitresses and grandmothers alike reach out to touch him because they saw him on the Johnny Carson show. He elicits such comments as, "He's lovely hope he gets further. He's not doing so well, is he?"

—Sen. Henry M. Jackson of Washington attracts women who say they prefer the "low-key approach." "I'm not a barrel," admitted one farm wife from Green Bay at a Jackson dinner sponsored by Plumber-Steamfitters Local 298.

—Former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy's support still runs to the young, with some older retreads from 1968.

—And New York's Rep. Shirley Chisholm attracts women who are dedicated—mostly feminists, some black.

Most of the women who turn out for the banquets and the streetcorner speeches talk about the same issues: tax reform, the unemployment situation, the war in Indochina, welfare and education. What varies are the order and the way they want them solved.

A wiry Milwaukee housewife, her head wrapped in a scarf against the cold, said she wants world peace first "because I can combat the economy myself, but I have a son, 17, and I don't want another war."

In contrast, a Humphrey supporter in Superior, where every ninth person is out of work, ranked "getting out of this foolish war" second to "clearing

Boy Defeats Sickness

TERRA LINDA, Calif. (AP) — When Tracy Caldwell was born nine years ago with cerebral palsy, doctors said he would never walk.

Three weeks ago, when he told his parents he was going to try out for the Little League baseball team at Terra Linda, in Marin County north of San Francisco, they didn't take him too seriously. After all, he wears braces on both legs.

But Terry tried out and captured pitching and outfield positions on the team.

Ray Siciliano, who coaches the team, said the youngster has been doing a good job and has served as an inspiration for the other players.

"You ought to watch him when he's pitching," said Siciliano. "Sometimes he loses his balance and falls. But he just jumps up, brushes off his uniform and goes at it again as if nothing had happened. He's been an inspiration for other members of our club."

Drug Fight Given Boost

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Atty. Gen. William J. Brown's program to catch drug pushers would get a boost from a legislator's proposal to reward tipsters.

Rep. Alan Norris, R-59 Westerville, said he will introduce a bill that would offer rewards of $100 to $500 for information leading to the arrest of drug pushers. He estimates it would cost $25,000 to $30,000 annually.

Brown launched a program last year called "Turn In a Pusher." He said he favors the bill but that Norris' cost estimate is too low.

"It would cost a bundle," Brown said. "Even if you only caught 60 pushers, it would run $30,000."

Brown said the Ohio Bureau of Criminal Identification at London handled 1,900 drug cases last year.

Sweden's Gloom

The golden glow of the West's foremost welfare state — Sweden — is acquiring a tarnished hue. Economic dislocations have caused many Swedes to question whether their cradle-to-grave welfarism is a good thing.

Now they have another critical report to consider, this one dealing with increasing incidences of mental illness. National social welfare authorities were instructed by parliament to review the mental health problem. They have concluded Swedes are sacrificing their mental well-being in pursuit of material improvement.

One of Sweden's top experts on psychiatry and socio-medicine says a country's welfare no longer can be measured simply by its "standard of life." In a report entitled "Mental Health and the Human Environment," Dr. Hans Lohman says the pressure on individual values needs to be considered also.

Swedish society has become merciless and unfriendly, Lohman concludes, because it is caught in a vicious cycle. A high rate of economic growth is necessary to pay for welfare services. As these expand, still higher rates of economic growth are required.

The result, warns the psychiatrist, is increasing pressure on the producers. And increasing numbers of patients suffering from mental illness. Sweden belatedly is discovering there is more than one way to pay for cradle-to-grave statism.

Each new one more unpleasant than the last.

Solar Rescue

In recent discussions of depletion of natural sources of energy, little has been said about the most abundant energy source. But there are many predictions that the cost of producing energy may escalate as stocks of natural fuels shrink.

Energy from the sun's rays comes to the earth every day free of charge with a potential force equal to 560 billion tons of coal. The sun will last as long as the earth does. The only problem is capturing its rays and turning them into usable energy.

Solar energy in the form of cells which store the sun's rays have limited applications. Could the principle be expanded sufficiently to contribute significantly to power output?

One study made by a University of Arizona astronomer calculates a 5,000-square mile "solar power farm" could generate a million megawatts of electricity. At what cost he didn't say.

Horoscope Forecast

By Carroll Righter

WEDNESDAY'S HOROSCOPE

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Poor judgment about financial matters along with upsetting conditions connected with everyday matters can bring you problems hard to solve, so relax and take life as quietly and as easily as possible. Avoid getting into arguments or discussion, for no one would really win.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are not sure just how to handle some financial affairs you have to take care of, so use every caution to avoid making expensive errors. Don't interfere in the affairs of others for they are not thinking clearly, either.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You are not in a particularly good mood so would do well to postpone any important decisions you may have to make. Do something to improve your health and attractiveness. Be more sure of yourself as a result.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are under some pressure, but can carry through very well and be the winner just the same. Try to help those who are having some rough sledding. You have the right answer to their problems.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Your judgment is rather poor today so do not try to pass it along to others or you both get into trouble. Be clever even though the cards may seem stacked against you. Then you win out easily.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You are thinking negatively and could get yourself into all sorts of trouble, so take time to compose yourself early in the a.m. Then you can carry through admirably the rest of the day and p.m. Drive with care.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are feeling discontented and can therefore come up with some fine new ideas you know are right which improve your future. Make the changes necessary in a positive way. Stop struggling so hard.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Impress others with the fact that you can discharge obligations in a most accurate way and gain their respect and approval. There is no need to argue so much with associates. Listen more to what they have to say and stop being so opinionated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have to study those plans more carefully before you talk them over with partners and come to the right agreement. Newcomers have fine ideas, so listen and understand them. Instead of just pretending to do so. Gain.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 22) That mood to do nothing while duties await you is just a state of mind, so change it. You are one who can persevere and be thorough, and this is the time to do just that. Our planets are testing you — be equal to the test.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 to Jan. 20) What makes you think you can leave important work and let others down just so you can have extracurricular fun? Get down to business, forget the tempter and by p.m. you will have the last laugh, instead of vice versa. Stop being the goat, actually.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are apt to treat family most contemptuously if you don't get hold of yourself and realize that your loyalty belongs at home. Faults there are small. Eliminate these quietly and kindly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Control yourself and stop rushing around, talking too fast, saying the wrong things. Show you have your feet squarely on the ground. An ounce of control can save the day, p.m. for you, and others who depend on you as well. Wisdom.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she could very well be one of those fortunate youngsters unfortunate enough to be born in actual need. From this temporary background can come the fortitude and the will to succeed lacking in those with the silver spoon in the mouth who often fail to take it out on time and therefore do not know the ingredients for success, unless good fortune is forcibly taken away. Look for fame in this chart.

Views On TV-Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Fred MacMurray, Glenn Ford, Glen Campbell, Tony Curtis, David Janssen, James Franciscus, Elizabeth Montgomery and Don Rickles are among the stars whose television programs have been canceled by ABC and CBS.

And to these the names of James Stewart and James Garner, whose shows got the hook at season's end from NBC — plus Shirley MacLaine and Anthony Quinn whose ABC series lasted only until midseason, and it becomes obvious that the television audience has been saying something.

It can only be one of two things: A film star is only as good on television as the material in his series, or that a program is only as strong as its competition is weak.

The three major networks have announced their prime-time plans for next September. They include 19 new programs with big emphasis on situation comedy, plenty of action shows and a little variety.

Generally, the proposed programs seem to be safe, bland and decidedly nonexperimental. Julie Andrews will have an hour of variety on ABC. CBS hopes Bill Cosby will churn up for it the kind of excitement that Flip Wilson has created for NBC.

Since Archie Bunker has been a sensation on CBS, the network has produced a comedy about a relative of dingbat Edith named "Cousin Maude," who is as liberal as Archie is conservative.

Since most shows scheduled for showing five months hence are unmade, the most interesting aspects of the new schedules are the cancellations. Two shows died essentially from old age but were hurried along by their networks. Both "My Three Sons," on CBS for 12 years, and "Bewitched," an ABC fixture for eight, came to a dismal end when they were forced to compete with two of the most popular shows — NBC's "Flip Wilson Show" and CBS's "All in the Family," respectively.

"The Glen Campbell Show," which started as a surprise hit four seasons back, came a cropper this season when it was put opposite ABC's "Mod Squad" and NBC's "Ironside."

Glenn Ford's "Cade's County" had to buck NBC's "Bonanza" with its hard-core audience plus ABC's often attractive feature film on Sunday nights.

Altogether, 15 programs have been canceled at the end of this season — not unusual and all of

The Unthinkable

By JEFFERY HART

In a recent column I spoke of the ambiguity surrounding many of the Nixon Administration's policies, making them difficult to assess, let alone attack.

A small tremor of fear is now agitating the ranks of both liberal and radical opponents of the war, and it reaches into the camps of the Democratic contenders for the Presidency.

This fear has its source, oddly enough, in the massive campaign we have been subjected to against the bombing: the Kennedy hearings, Rep. Michael Harrington's demands, and so on ad infinitum. We have heard about the bomb tonnages, about the sophisticated technology, about the devastation.

We are supposed, of course, to react with horror and revulsion. Yet few have raised, in addition, a rather obvious question. Faced with this technology, is it possible that the North Vietnamese in fact May Not Win?

Among radical critics of the war, Noam Chomsky, a professor of linguistics at MIT, has been virtually alone in recent months in raising the specter of that possibility. For his pains, he has been vilified by his radical peers, who assume as a matter of course the invincibility of the Communist side. For Chomsky even to suggest that Communism will could be frustrated by American technology seems to such radicals a kind of political perversion. But the fear will not subside, and it has now surfaced in print.

"Suppose, just suppose," whispers Bob Kuttner in the current Village Voice, "that the United States is winning the Vietnam war. It is a fantasy, few war critics, liberal or radical, care to indulge." And after some analysis and meditation he concludes: "Nixon's policy of Vietnamization and mechanization has changed the equation so that not only is the United States no longer losing men, it may well no longer be losing the war."

This conclusion receives a good deal of support from the evident anxieties of Communist representatives in Paris. In private talks with American leftists they have been urging repeatedly that the "peace movement" exert itself, as a matter of highest priority, against the bombing.

But the beauty of the Nixon strategy is the way in which it exploits a contradiction in the liberal-radical anti-war coalition. The radicals have always been against the war. From their standpoint, we are on the wrong side and deserve to lose.

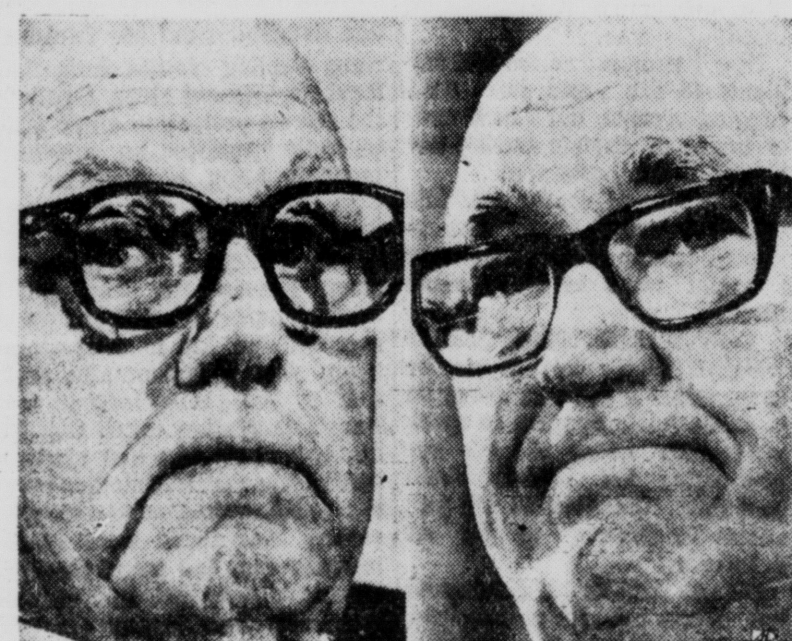

The liberal position is quite different. People like Clark Clifford and George Ball, Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie turned against the war only when they concluded that it could not be won at a price we would be willing to pay. The Nixon strategy bears sharply on that theoretical disagreement in the anti-war coalition.

That disagreement, incidentally, underlies the bitter dispute between the McGovern and Muskie camps about the "late" conversion of Muskie to an anti-war position. In the McGovern camp, radicals hold many key positions. Muskie's people are liberals.

But suppose, just suppose — to return to Kuttner — the North Vietnamese cause is a lost one. Then the liberal position is a hopeless one too. Nixon is saying, in effect, withdraw and win. Muskie and Humphrey, Mansfield and the others can only reply: withdraw and lose. That does not sound like a winning hand. And so the twinge of fear, like a nervous tapping of the foot, that is beginning to be felt in the anti-war camp.

Though they do not avow it publicly, indeed, many liberals now sense that only dramatic evidence of continuing North Vietnamese vitality can preserve the credibility of the liberal position. Politically, what the liberals now need is another Tet offensive. But many of them are beginning to fear that it is beyond the capacities of the Communists to mount one.

Speaking Of Your Health

When we told our twin children that we were moving to a distant city they both developed personality changes that we traced to the time we spoke to them about it.

They are 7 years old and we hear them talking about it constantly.

Is there a way that we can help them?

Mr. and Mrs. G. L., Conn.

Dear Mrs. L.:

It is not unusual for children to react to such news with both physical and emotional symptoms.

Far too often, children are displaced from their schools, their friends and their familiar neighborhood without a thoughtfully planned explanation.

You were wise to recognize that their anxiety stems from this news. You are in a position to alleviate it by going over the whole subject thoroughly with them.

Don't underestimate the capacity of a 7-year-old to understand everything that you tell him in simple terms.

First, they should be told the purpose of the move. Then they should be encouraged to express their anxieties and to ask questions about the move, the new schools and the possibility of an occasional return to their friends.

Let the children take an active role in the move. Most important, of course, is the constant reassurance that your love, your devotion and your protection will not change in the new environment.

Point out all the positive aspects of the move. A better position for their father, interesting new things to do and see in the new city, with pictures to illustrate. Try to give them specific things to look forward to.

Then, if you approach the new move yourself with enthusiasm rather than with confusion and anxiety, your children will find it easier to adjust to this important change in their lives.

After a leg is amputated how long is it before one learns to walk with an artificial limb?

Mr. W.N., Wyo.

It has always been a source of wonder how patients draw on their inner courage when news of such a devastating operation is first told to them.

At first, the despair is overwhelming. But, with proper assurance by the doctor they face reality and almost startle everyone by their inner strength.

Some people, because of their age or infirmities, may take a long time to walk with an artificial limb. Even then, the time depends entirely on each person, and on the emotional support and rehabilitation training he receives.

There now is a technique by which an artificial limb is fitted almost immediately after operation. The method has been tried and used with great success all over the country. It dramatically reduces the time before the patient is able to walk and function independently.

NEW YORK (AP) — The pocketbook issues of jobs and prices are unlikely to go away before the election or after it or even perhaps in this decade, and wise economists know it.

Acting upon this knowledge is another thing. A political candidate cannot acknowledge that the problems are without prospects for immediate solution, not at least until after November. But like the economists, they know.

The issues that keep unemployment and inflation at a 4 per cent to 6 per cent rate are deeply rooted in our spending habits, our demands for finer goods, our aspirations, our population mix, our work ethic.

The pressures on the job market and on prices have built for many years and they cannot be relieved instantly. There is, for example, an imbalance of jobs versus applications whose roots go back 20 years.

At that time a lot of little Americans were brought into the economy, and now they are looking for jobs. And so, while the number of jobs grows, the number of job seekers grows faster.

There is the matter of proper training. How does the nation anticipate future jobs with any degree of efficiency? Twenty years ago we had the answer: train them as engineers and teachers. Now they are jobless.

The fact is that there are jobs unfilled for weeks because, added to the selectivity of employers who are trying to keep costs down is the absence of individuals properly qualified for the jobs.

Spending habits, both public and private, are an explosive ingredient in inflation. And behind those spending patterns are ever-rising aspirations, both public and personal.

While the federal government attempts to put the lid on prices, it is, ironically, pumping more yeast into the recipe through deficit spending, necessitated by desires for better education, health, environment, security.

Consider the demands for pollution control. So far this new ingredient hasn't shown up in lower corporate profits, but quite likely it has shown up in higher prices. The costs are spread through society. All society pays.

While consumers complain about high prices, they demand more convenience foods. They add to the price of processing and packaging. Not only do they eat more red meat than ever, but they demand higher quality cuts.

But the good life to which all Americans aspire is symbolized by more than food. Undeniably, a bigger house, better car, expensive vacation and a variety of services keep the pressure on both wages and prices.

Are Americans willing to work hard for this good life? Of course. Are they willing to work as hard as they once did? Are the offspring of immigrants willing to work as their fathers did?

Such questions pertain to white as well as blue-collar workers, to executives as well as clerks.

There still are other pressures that must be considered in trying to understand why immediate measures are slow to produce results in bringing wages and prices into a more stable relationship.

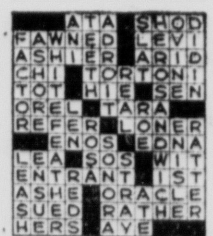

The international situation, for example, intrudes into every industrial economy on earth. Countries that import and export are under constant influence of the economies with which they deal.

These and other factors now roll the waters and give everyone in the economy a jostling ride.

The Pay Board and the Cost of Living Council try to seed the hurricane into submission but they haven't figured how to prevent the hurricane from forming.

Sweden's Gloom

The golden glow of the West's foremost welfare state — Sweden — is acquiring a tarnished hue. Economic dislocations have caused many Swedes to question whether their cradle-to-grave welfare is a good thing.

Now they have another critical report to consider, this one dealing with increasing incidences of mental illness. National social welfare authorities were instructed by parliament to review the mental health problem. They have concluded Swedes are sacrificing their mental well-being in pursuit of material improvement.

One of Sweden's top experts on psychiatry and socio-medicine says a country's welfare no longer can be measured simply by its "standard of life." In a report entitled "Mental Health and the Human Environment," Dr. Hans Lohman says the pressure on individual values needs to be considered also.

Swedish society has become merciless and unfriendly, Lohman concludes, because it is caught in a vicious cycle. A high rate of economic growth is necessary to pay for welfare services. As these expand, still higher rates of economic growth are required.

The result, warns the psychiatrist, is increasing pressure on the producers. And increasing numbers of patients suffering from mental illness. Sweden belatedly is discovering there is more than one way to pay for cradle-to-grave statism.

Each new one more unpleasant than the last.

Solar Rescue

In recent discussions of depletion of natural sources of energy, little has been said about the most abundant energy source. But there are many predictions that the cost of producing energy may escalate as stocks of natural fuels shrink.

Energy from the sun's rays comes to the earth every day free of charge with a potential force equal to 560 billion tons of coal. The sun will last as long as the earth does. The only problem is capturing its rays and turning them into usable energy.

Solar energy in the form of cells which store the sun's rays have limited applications. Could the principle be expanded sufficiently to contribute significantly to power output?

One study made by a University of Arizona astronomer calculates a 5,000-square mile "solar power farm" could generate a million megawatts of electricity. At what cost he didn't say.

WEDNESDAY'S HOROSCOPE
GENERAL TENDENCIES: Poor judgment about financial matters along with upsetting conditions connected with everyday matters can bring you problems hard to solve, so relax and take life as quietly and as easily as possible. Avoid getting into arguments or discussion, for no one would really win.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) You are not sure just how to handle some financial affairs you have to take care of, so use every caution to avoid making expensive errors. Don't interfere in the affairs of others for they are not thinking clearly, either.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) You are not in a particularly good mood so would do well to postpone any important decisions you may have to make. Do something to improve your health and attractiveness. Be more sure of yourself as a result.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You are under some pressure, but can carry through very well and be the winner just the same. Try to help those who are having some rough sledding. You have the right answer to their problems.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Your judgment is rather poor today so do not try to pass it along to others or you both get into trouble. Be clever even though the cards may seem stacked against you. Then you win out easily.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You are thinking negatively and could get yourself into all sorts of trouble, so take time to compose yourself early in the a.m. Then you can carry through admirably the rest of the day and p.m. Drive with care.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are feeling discontented and can therefore come up with some fine new ideas you know are right which improve your future. Make the changes necessary in a positive way. Stop struggling so hard.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Impress others with the fact that you can discharge obligations in a most accurate way and gain their respect and approval. There is no need to argue so much with associates. Listen more to what they have to say and stop being so opinionated.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) You have to study those plans more carefully before you talk them over with partners and come to the right agreement. Newcomers have fine ideas, so listen and understand them. Instead of just pretending to do so. Gain.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 22) That mood to do nothing while duties await you is just a state of mind, so change it. You are one who can persevere and be thorough, and this is the time to do just that. Our planets are testing you — be equal to the test.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 to Jan. 20) What makes you think you can leave important work and let others down just so you can have extracurricular fun? Get down to business, forget the tempter and by p.m. you will have the last laugh, instead of vice versa. Stop being the goat, actually.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are apt to treat family most contemptuously if you don't get hold of yourself and realize that your loyalty beongs at home. Faults there are small. Eliminate these quietly and kindly.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Control yourself and stop rushing around, talking too fast, saying the wrong things. Show you have your feet squarely on the ground. An ounce of control can save the day, p.m. for you, and others who depend on you as well. Wisdom.

NEW YORK (AP) — Fred MacMurray, Glenn Ford, Glen Campbell, Tony Curtis, David Janssen, James Franciscus, Elizabeth Montgomery and Don Rickles are among the stars whose television programs have been canceled by ABC and CBS.

And to these the names of James Stewart and James Garner, whose shows got the hook at season's end from NBC — plus Shirley MacLaine and Anthony Quinn whose ABC series lasted only until midseason, and it becomes obvious that the television audience has been saying something.

It can only be one of two things: A film star is only as good on television as the material in his series, or that a program is only as strong as its competition is weak.

The three major networks have announced their prime-time plans for next September. They include 19 new programs with big emphasis on situation comedy, plenty of action shows and a little variety.

Generally, the proposed programs seem to be safe, bland and decidedly nonexperimental. Julie Andrews will have an hour of variety on ABC. CBS hopes Bill Cosby will churn up for it the kind of excitement that Flip Wilson has created for NBC.

Since Archie Bunker has been a sensation on CBS, the network has produced a comedy about a relative of dingbat Edith named "Cousin Maude," who is as liberal as Archie is conservative.

Since most shows scheduled for showing five months hence are unmade, the most interesting aspects of the new schedules are the cancellations. Two shows died essentially from old age but were hurried along by their networks. Both "My Three Sons," on CBS for 12 years, and "Bewitched," an ABC fixture for eight, came to dismal ends when they were forced to compete with two of the most popular shows — NBC's "Flip Wilson Show" and CBS's "All in the Family," respectively.

"The Glen Campbell Show," which started as a surprise hit four seasons back, came a cropper this season when it was put opposite ABC's "Mod Squad" and NBC's "Ironside." Glenn Ford's "Cade County" had to buck NBC's "Bonanza" with its hard-core audience plus ABC's often attractive feature film on Sunday nights.

Altogether, 15 programs have been canceled at the end of this season — not unusual and all of

The Unthinkable

By JEFFERY HART

In a recent column I spoke of the ambiguity surrounding many of the Nixon Administration's policies, making them difficult to assess, let alone attack.

A small tremor of fear is now agitating the ranks of both liberal and radical opponents of the war, and it reaches into the camps of the Democratic contenders for the Presidency.

This fear has its source, oddly enough, in the massive campaign we have been subjected to against the bombing: the Kennedy hearings, Rep. Michael Harrington's demands, and so on ad infinitum. We have heard about the bomb tonnages, about the sophisticated technology, about the devastation.

We are supposed, of course, to react with horror and revulsion. Yet few have raised, in addition, a rather obvious question. Faced with this technology, is it possible that the North Vietnamese in fact May Not Win?

Among radical critics of the war, Noam Chomsky, a professor of linguistics at MIT, has been virtually alone in recent months in raising the specter of that possibility. For his pains, he has been vilified by his radical peers, who assume as a matter of course the inevitability of the Communist side. For Chomsky even to suggest that Communist will could be frustrated by American technology seems to such radicals a kind of political perversion. But the fear will not subside, and it has now surfaced in print.

"Suppose, just suppose," whispers Bob Kuttner in the current Village Voice, "that the United States is winning the Vietnam war. It is a fantasy few war critics, liberal or radical, care to indulge." And after some analysis and meditation he concludes: "Nixon's policy of Vietnamization and mechanization has changed the equation so that not only is the United States no longer losing men, it may well no longer be losing the war."

This conclusion receives a good deal of support from the evident anxieties of Communist representatives in Paris. In private talks with American leftists they have been urging repeatedly that the "peace movement" exert itself, as a matter of highest priority, against the bombing.

But the beauty of the Nixon strategy is the way in which it exploits a contradiction in the liberal-radical anti-war coalition. The radicals have always been against the war. From their standpoint, we are on the wrong side and deserve to lose.

The liberal position is quite different. People like Clark Clifford and George Ball, Hubert Humphrey and Edmund Muskie turned against the war only when they concluded that it could not be won at a price we would be willing to pay. The Nixon strategy bears sharply on that theoretical disagreement in the anti-war coalition.

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Jefferson Thomas Berry, 51-year-old inmate of Ohio Penitentiary's "death row," died in Riverside Hospital.

Death came Saturday from heart failure brought on by lung cancer, Warden Harold J. Cardwell said.

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — Michael Morgan, 14, of Canton, died in Aultman Hospital today of a gunshot wound suffered during what Stark County Sheriff George Papadopoulos said was a game of cops and robbers played by four juveniles.

Papadopoulos said the boy was shot in the head Friday while he and three others were playing the game in a vacant home on the city's Southeast Side.

McGovern Seen Favorite Of Wisconsin Youth

By PETER ARNETT
AP Special Correspondent
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — They were Gov. George C. Wallace's coldest audiences.

Sens. Henry M. Jackson, Hubert H. Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie were grateful just to get by without major harassment.

Whenever they were in the kingdoms of the newly enfranchised young voter, the Wisconsin primary candidates learned to tread warily.

Only Sen. George S. McGovern and Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York moved comparatively freely among the young audiences.

An estimated 250,000 young people between 18 and 24 are expected to vote in Tuesday's presidential primary. They comprise a sizable voting bloc—the equivalent of 20 percent of the total vote cast in Wisconsin in the 1968 presidential election.

All the candidates have youthful supporters.

Muskie had an ardent supporter in Willie Smith, 18, a black messenger at the Milwaukee Veterans Hospital who said "He is a real nice guy. He reminds me of what President Kennedy must have been. He says nice things."

But Muskie visited Madison recently and a bearded student, unhappy with the candidate's reluctance to legalize marijuana, scornfully offered him a joint.

Humphrey, who promised something for everyone in this primary, told high schools he would create a Cabinet-level Department of Youth Affairs if elected. His promises of work for all rang some chords in the blue-collar districts of Milwaukee, but generally his appearances among the young were plagued by youths waving Lindsay and McGovern signs.

Jackson made no appeal for the youth vote, and few young people were in his audiences. He took hard-line positions on amnesty for draft dodgers and on drugs, two issues close to the hearts of Wisconsin's voting youth.

Of major potential appeal to the young was Lindsay whose good looks and liberal positions on the issues appeared likely to gather much support, according to local observers.

"But his image, the legends that automatically surrounded him somehow kept him apart from us," said student Peter Greenberg. "The girls loved him, it was like Johnny Carson running for president. But after Florida the young knew he could never be president, so they opted for George McGovern," Greenberg said.

It is around McGovern that the youth vote in Wisconsin seemed to have polarized.

"He is pretty ordinary looking," said Joyce Dickinson, 20, of Madison. "But he has clarity, consistency."

McGovern seems to have won the youth vote. But he does not have the eager volunteer workers that followed the young voters' favorite of 1968, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

McCarthy cuts a tragic figure. Also a candidate in the primary, he recently walked around the campus of the University of Wisconsin at Madison where he scored a personal triumph in 1968. It was the student support on campus that built up the momentum of his campaign to victory in 1968. But this time he was unrecognized.

McGovern Seen Favorite Of Wisconsin Youth

By PETER ARNETT
AP Special Correspondent
MILWAUKEE, Wis. (AP) — They were Gov. George C. Wallace's coldest audiences.

Sens. Henry M. Jackson, Hubert H. Humphrey and Edmund S. Muskie were grateful just to get by without major harassment.

Whenever they were in the kingdoms of the newly enfranchised young voter, the Wisconsin primary candidates learned to tread warily.

Only Sen. George S. McGovern and Mayor John V. Lindsay of New York moved comparatively freely among the young audiences.

An estimated 250,000 young people between 18 and 24 are expected to vote in Tuesday's presidential primary. They comprise a sizable voting bloc—the equivalent of 20 per cent of the total vote cast in Wisconsin in the 1968 presidential election.

All the candidates have youthful supporters.

Muskie had an ardent supporter in Willie Smith, 18, a black messenger at the Milwaukee Veterans Hospital who said "He is a real nice guy. He reminds me of what President Kennedy must have been. He says nice things."

But Muskie visited Madison recently and a bearded student, unhappy with the candidate's reluctance to legalize marijuana, scornfully offered him a joint.

Humphrey, who promised something for everyone in this primary, told high schools he would create a Cabinet-level Department of Youth Affairs if elected. His promises of work for all rang some chords in the blue-collar districts of Milwaukee, but generally his appearances among the young were plagued by youths waving Lindsay and McGovern signs.

Jackson made no appeal for the youth vote, and few young people were in his audiences. He took hard-line positions on amnesty for draft dodgers and on drugs, two issues close to the hearts of Wisconsin's voting youth.

Of major potential appeal to the young was Lindsay whose good looks and liberal positions on the issues appeared likely to gather much support, according to local observers.

"But his image, the legends that automatically surrounded him somehow kept him apart from us," said student Peter Greenberg. "The girls loved him, it was like Johnny Carson running for president. But after Florida the young knew he could never be president, so they opted for George McGovern," Greenberg said.

It is around McGovern that the youth vote in Wisconsin seemed to have polarized.

"He is pretty ordinary looking," said Joyce Dickinson, 20, of Madison. "But he has clarity, consistency."

McGovern seems to have won the youth vote. But he does not have the eager volunteer workers that followed the young voters' favorite of 1968, Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy.

McCarthy cuts a tragic figure. Also a candidate in the primary, he recently walked around the campus of the University of Wisconsin at Madison where he scored a personal triumph in 1968. It was the student support on campus that built up the momentum of his campaign to victory in 1968.

But this time he was unrecognized.

Sweet Blames Gas Crisis On Prices

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio Development Director David C. Sweet says Ohio's natural gas supply problems can be traced to federal price restrictions that are inhibiting companies from tapping the nation's vast reserves.

Sweet told the Public Utilities Commission of Ohio Monday the nation has enough natural gas to last into the 21st Century, but federal price regulations have removed the incentive to exploit the reserves.

The commission was conducting hearings on requests from Columbia Gas of Ohio and Ohio Valley Gas Co. that they be allowed to refuse service to new residential customers.

The companies claim that unless steps are taken to cut consumption, next winter will see a 16 million cubic feet gas deficit in Ohio. The firms agreed Monday to put off their requests for a new service freeze until July 1.

Sweet said cutting off new customers would force them to spend an additional $7.5 million over the next five years on "more costly forms of energy."

He said gas companies should look into alternatives to solving the gas supply problem before cutting new service, for example converting coal to natural gas or importing gas in the frozen state.

Use Of Military Helicopters As Ambulances Works Well

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Army Capt. Ronald Woodward, whose Vietnam experience serves him well as head of a military helicopter ambulance program, fished through a file of praise for what some call the "rescue birds."

He produced a letter from a rural doctor whose patient had suffered a severe stroke and needed immediate care at a San Antonio hospital.

"I am firmly convinced that if he had been removed to San Antonio by ground ambulance or private car, he would not have survived the trip," the doctor's letter read.

But within minutes after the doctor contacted MAST—Military Assistance to Safety and Traffic—the patient was whisked by Army helicopter to a local hospital.

Aimed primarily at civilians, the MAST program began as an experiment here on July 15, 1970.

Since then, more than 500 patients have been flown to medical care centers for treatment of cases ranging from snakebite to injuries sustained in traffic accidents.

After the project proved successful here, it was introduced in four other states—Ft. Carson, Colo., Ft. Lewis, Wash., Luke Air Force Base, Ariz., and Mountain Home AFB, Idaho.

The government now has decided to make the program permanent and expand it to 14 more states.

Capt. Woodward, 34, recently assigned as MAST project officer here, says he has received nothing but praise and cooperation in the 100-mile radius that the program covers.

Sometimes the praise is entirely unexpected, such as the time Woodward spoke on MAST to a group at Cuero, Tex. He was handed a note signed by a woman who said a MAST helicopter flew through rain to transport her to San Antonio after she was seriously injured in a traffic accident.

"I want to thank you and your crew who made this daring effort to help save my life," the woman said.

At Floresville, about 30 miles southeast of here, MAST helicopters are a common sight.

"The community feels much safer now in living at a distance from a major city," said Sister Laverne Mettlich, administrator of Floresville Memorial Hospital.

One of the best features of the MAST service is that it comes free of charge, Sister Laverne said. "So many people say this is one thing the federal government is doing for us. At last it's getting some of its funds back to the people and not charging them for it."

MAST was designed to help reduce the death rate on the nation's highways, putting to use the lessons of helicopter ambulance experience in Vietnam.

"In at least three of our serious wrecks, they've saved the lives of individuals because of the quick transfer," Sister Laverne said.

South Viets Curb News

SAIGON (AP) — The press director of South Vietnam's Information Ministry said today that "appropriate action" will be taken against any newsman-foreign as well as Vietnamese—who publishes "groundless" reports about military actions in Vietnam.

The official, Tran Van Luu, said he could not say what "appropriate action" against a foreign newsman might be. But one U.S. official source said he did not expect any serious steps to be taken.

The government announced Monday that Vietnamese newsmen would be allowed to report only information from the military command information office and from Vietnam Press, the official government news agency.

Later in the day the government confiscated 14 Vietnamese-language newspapers for publishing Western news agency accounts of Vietnamese troops surrendering at Camp Carroll, one of the bases overrun Sunday below the demilitarized zone by the North Vietnamese.

The Saigon Post, an English-language paper, was made to cut references to the surrender from its story.

All the leading Democratic contenders called for reforms that would increase taxes on the wealthy and big corporations while easing them on the middle classes. Wisconsin has one of the highest property taxes in the nation.

President Nixon's economic programs were a major target. School busing, the big issue in Florida three weeks ago, was hardly mentioned in Wisconsin, which has only a small black population and no school desegregation controversy.

Of the 12 Democratic candidates, only the six major candidates conducted full-fledged campaigns. Only former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, among the others, campaigned at all, and he urged backers to support Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York or Lindsay.

Other Democrats on the ballot were Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana, Reps. Patsy Mink of Hawaii and Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas and Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles.

All the leading Democratic contenders called for reforms that would increase taxes on the wealthy and big corporations while easing them on the middle classes. Wisconsin has one of the highest property taxes in the nation.

President Nixon's economic programs were a major target. School busing, the big issue in Florida three weeks ago, was hardly mentioned in Wisconsin, which has only a small black population and no school desegregation controversy.

Of the 12 Democratic candidates, only the six major candidates conducted full-fledged campaigns. Only former Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy of Minnesota, among the others, campaigned at all, and he urged backers to support Rep. Shirley Chisholm of New York or Lindsay.

Other Democrats on the ballot were Sen. Vance Hartke of Indiana, Reps. Patsy Mink of Hawaii and Wilbur D. Mills of Arkansas and Mayor Sam Yorty of Los Angeles.

A green and white formation around the battery terminals means sulphation and sulphation means your car battery is dying. You need VX-6 immediately, or you will soon have to spend money for a new battery. If there is no sulphation, you can prevent it by adding VX-6 now. 4 Trainmen Are Honored With Presidential Medal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Four trainmen who risked their lives to save others received the Transportation Department's highest award, the Presidential Medal of Honor, from Secretary of Transportation John A. Volpe Monday.

They were J. J. McLaughlin, Valley View, Tex., S. C. Meyers, Gainesville, Tex., Robert Q. Garner, Genoa, Ohio, and James H. Hughes, Indianapolis.

McLaughlin and Meyers were operating a freight train at Gainesville Dec. 26, 1970, when they saw an automobile plunge down an embankment, roll over alongside the tracks, and burst into flames.

They halted the train, radioed for help, and rushed to the burning car.

Discovering two children trapped in the back seat, Meyers smashed the window, crawled in, and passed the children out to McLaughlin.

Fighting the flames with an extinguisher from the locomotive they found a third victim, the father of the children, trapped by the broken front seat.

Meyers crawled into the car again and with McLaughlin's help pulled the man to safety. The man's wife, the other occupant of the car, had been thrown clear of the wreckage and also survived.

Garner, brakeman on a train entering Genoa Oct. 28, 1970, observed a small boy on a tricycle perilously close to the track.

Climbing out of the cab of the moving train, he ran up the left walkway to the front of the locomotive, swung his body out while hanging from a three-step stairway, and pushed the boy and tricycle out of the path of the engine.

Hughes, a section worker on a railroad right of way in Indianapolis June 30, 1971, saw an automobile stalled at a grade crossing directly in front of an oncoming train. The citation said the two women occupants had panicked and made no effort to abandon the machine.

Hughes ran to the small foreign-built car and pushed it clear just as the locomotive passed within less than six inches.

The University of Northern Colorado is located in Greeley.

9 Ohio Colleges Drop Freshmen Cage, Grid Teams

By GEORGE STRODE
Associated Press Sports Writer

Freshman football and basketball programs are dead at the nine Ohio major colleges.

An Associated Press survey shows the state's major schools will switch to junior varsity squads next fall, combining freshmen and upperclassmen.

The moves are a result of the new NCAA rule permitting freshmen to play varsity football and basketball, beginning with the 1972-73 school year.

Freshmen already play varsity competition in the other sports at major schools.

The rule was aimed at trimming rising athletic budgets and Ohio's three independents, Dayton, Cincinnati and Xavier, will take advantage of it.

The trio will have no freshman or jayvee football squads, but lean toward jayvee basketball teams.

"Instead of two teams and 110 people in football," Dayton athletic director Tom Frericks said, "we'll now have one team and 72-75 players."

Frericks said Dayton will save $45,000 on its football grants-in-aid, which have been sliced from 70 to 55. "Each one costs us $3,000," he said.

The Big Ten and Mid-American are expected to decide jayvee team status for their members at conference meetings in May.

Ed Weaver, Ohio State athletic director, doesn't believe the new freshmen rule will cut costs at a major football power such as the Buckeyes.

"I don't see any cost savings," he said. "We'll still have 120 football players at all times."

Cincinnati athletic director George Smith said the regulation has helped recruiting.

"There is some feeling among the newcomers that they'll be able to help the varsity as substitutes," Smith said.

Jack Murphy, who lost 19 seniors from his Toledo team with the nation's longest football streak of 35 victories, disagreed.

"With all of our graduation losses," Murphy said, "it will take a very exceptional athlete, a very mature person to make the varsity."

Woody Hayes, Big Ten football coaching dean in his 22nd Ohio State season, worries about the academic side and maturity.

See Concrete Canoe Race Interest High

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Interest in the Midwest for concrete canoe racing appears to be growing.

Teams from 14 universities and colleges have paid their $5 registration for the World Series of Concrete Canoes to be held April 29 at Eagle Creek Park in Indianapolis.

The University of Illinois team is the defending champion, defeating sole challenger Purdue last spring. Illinois won the best of 3-of-5 heats when Purdue paddlers failed to execute an inadvertent man-over-board drill.

It was the first race of its kind in canoes handmade of concrete mixed with an aggregate of perlite and troweled over a wire mesh frame.

Schools entering the race include defending champion Illinois; host Purdue; Indiana Institute of Technology; Marquette; Michigan State; North western; Ohio Northern; Ohio State; Tri-State, Ind.; Illinois; Chicago Circle; Michigan; Missouri; Toledo; Wisconsin; Wisconsin-Platteville; and Valparaiso, Ind.

"It will put enormous pressure on kids academically," said Hayes. "A lot of youngsters can't settle down in their studies as soon as they should."

"We also feel freshmen will not be as mature physically as upper classmen, and they may get hurt more," Hayes said.

Jim McCafferty, Xavier athletic director and its former basketball coach, thinks the new rule will help freshmen grades.

"We believe they will study harder and do better academically if they think they have a chance to be out there playing on the varsity," McCafferty said.

Despite the new regulation, coaches see few freshmen cracking the varsity lineups.

"Maybe a place kicker, punter, split receiver or running back with speed could do it in football," Murphy said.

"It's quite a jump in basketball, too, because of defense," said Ohio University's Jim Snyder, the dean of the Mid-American basketball coaches.

"A player who has scored a lot in high school must play more defense in college," Snyder said.

Fred Taylor of Ohio State, president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, sees another bonus to the rule. "If we have a jayvee schedule," Taylor said, "some of the guys sitting on the varsity bench can develop against outside competition."

The rule will have no effect on the 36 Ohio schools in the NCAA college division or the NAIA since they already play freshmen in all sports.

CHS Golfers Drop Meet To Bears, Lions

Upper Arlington defeated Circleville and Washington C. H. in a triangular golf match Monday at Pickaway Country Club.

Circleville dropped a 12-1 decision to Upper Arlington and lost 11-2 to the Blue Lions. The Golden Bears upended Washington C. H. 11-2 to take all the honors.

Greg Williams gained the Tigers' only point against the Golden Bears as he fired a 44-42-86, Bob Downey had 45-45-94, Ken Yamarick shot 42-45-87 and J. C. Timberlake had 52-52-104.

John Awe paced Upper Arlington with 36-37-73 for three points; Mike Sohn, 38-44-82, two points; Lar Galloway, 38-36-74, three points and Jay Hodson, 40-36-76, three points.

AGAINST Washington C. H., Greg Williams had 41-44-85, one point; Bob Downey, 47-45-92; Ken Yamarick, 42-45-87, one point and J. C. Timberlake, 52-52-104.

For the Blue Lions, Rob Herron fired 43-41-84, two points; Bill Junk, 42-39-81, three points; Jerry Gibbs, 45-41-86, two points and Marc Haugen, 50-46-96, three points.

The reason for the difference in the Tigers' scores was the fact they played 27 holes, first nine against Washington C. H., second nine against the Lions and Arlington and the third nine against the Golden Bears. Circleville will play at Groveport Wednesday.

CHS Booster Club To Meet Wednesday

Circleville High School Athletic Booster Club will meet 8 p.m. Wednesday at the high school cafeteria.

Parents of all junior high and high school students and all coaches are encouraged to attend the meeting.

Gene Littler Eyes Career, Cancer Fight

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Gene Littler, who six years ago said he had resigned himself to the fact that he wasn't going to be the world's greatest golfer, isn't resigning himself to the fact that cancer may have ended his professional playing days.

"We're all holding good thoughts," he said on the eve of surgery at Mercy Hospital today. He has cancer of the lymph glands.

Littler, 41, said a malignant tumor was removed from under his left arm March 15 and now doctors want to see if the disease has spread.

"It's highly unpredictable," the former winner of the U.S. Open said Monday. "They may not find anything. The test results have been pretty good so far."

Littler's wife, Shirley said: "All the signs are good. We're very hopeful, very confident."

But Littler said a question marks hangs over his 18-year career.

"There is a good chance it may interfere permanently with my golf, though nobody really knows," he said during an interview. "Nobody has gone through this operation before, then tried to play tournament golf. I'll be able to play golf again, but the question is, 'Can I play tournament golf?'"

Littler, who won the U.S. Open in 1961 and the U.S. Amateur in 1953, is known on the pro tour as a quiet, modest player who keeps his emotions in check and doesn't court the press. He covets his home life and his hobby of tinkering with antique automobiles.

Captain Easy Back With Cleveland

CLEVELAND, Ohio (AP)—Captain Easy is back with the Cleveland Indians after a four-month absence, and the outfield picture looks much brighter today than it has at any time since spring training opened.

Captain Easy is the name Cleveland fans gave slugging outfielder Roy Foster, in part for his smooth and easy swing and in part for his long-ball threat that always seemed to come in clutch situations.

The right-handed batter batted .268 with 23 homers and 60 RBIs in 1970, his rookie season, but then was racked by injuries that curtailed his production to 18 homers and 45 RBIs, most of them coming in the last two months of the seasons.

Then to the surprise of most baseball observers, the power-hitting Foster was dealt off to the Rangers in December in a six-player deal in which Cleveland acquired outfielder Del Unser and reliever Denny Riddleberger.

Manager Ken Aspromonte says, however, that Foster won't move into the starting lineup immediately because of the fine performance this spring of rookie Buddy Bell. But as Aspromonte says: "It'll be up to Bell to keep the job."

The acquisition Monday of Foster and outfielder-first baseman Tom McCraw from the Rangers for outfielder Red Ford gives the Indians some much-needed experience in the outfield to team with Unser and Alex Johnson.

Middle linebacker Willie Lanier of the Kansas City Chiefs played at 240 pounds last season.

Braves Crush Flaget For Third Win, 12-1

Scoring seven runs in the second inning, Logan Elm gained its third straight win of the season as they blasted Bishop Flaget, 12-1, in a game played Monday on the Braves' diamond.

Again it was the combination of strong hitting and fine pitching that put another win in the record book of Coach Vic Pontius and his Redmen.

The Braves rapped the ball for 10 hits to back up a good pitching effort on the part of Gary Francis and Rick Blankenship. Francis hurled six innings, allowed two hits, walked four and fanned 15 Panther swingers. Blankenship

Gale Catlett To Be Tough With Cagers

CINCINNATI (AP) — Gale Catlett, the University of Cincinnati's new head basketball coach, has wasted no time in letting the team members know he is a disciplinarian.

"I'll demand a lot of you and I guarantee I'll give you a lot in return," Catlett said he told the players shortly after the announcement of his selection as coach was made Monday.

Catlett, 31, an assistant coach at the University of Kentucky under Adolph Rupp, succeeds Tay Baker who announced his resignation weeks ago but completed the season as coach.

"If you want to play for me, you get your hair cut," Catlett said he informed two players who will be returning to the squad next season. "I'm not going to make an issue of this hair thing, beard thing. If they like the hair long, okay, if it's neat and groomed."

Rupp informed UC officials that Catlett "was responsible for Kentucky winning the Southeast Conference this year. He can really recruit, he's loyal and certainly knows basketball."

Bill Walton Wins Adolph Rupp Trophy

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Bill Walton of UCLA will be the first recipient of the Adolph Rupp Trophy for basketball. Walton was chosen Monday in balloting by sportscasters and writers in all 50 states. He received more than four times the number of votes received by second-place Dwight Lamar of Southwestern Louisiana.

The award will be presented at a banquet Wednesday in Lexington.

Jack McCloskey New Trail Blazers Coach

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jack McCloskey has given up trying to turn Wake Forest into a contender in the Atlantic Coast Conference and taken on the task of coaching the hapless Portland Trail Blazers in the National Basketball Association.

The Blazers ended their two-month search for a coach Monday by hiring the 46-year-old McCloskey.

pitched the final inning, didn't allow a hit, walked two and struckout three.

Bishop Flaget committed seven errors in the contest while the Braves misplayed the ball on one occasion, F. Sander was the losing hurler in the game.

MIKE Holbrook and Steve DeBruin paced the Braves with a pair of singles apiece. Gary Wertman rapped a double and Scott Pontius, Francis, Doug Marshall, Ken Kurtz and Greg Justus each added a single to the Braves' attack.

Flaget tallied its lone run in the fifth inning when singles by Bob Fries and Bill Whalen, coupled with a pair of walks, forced in the run.

The Braves jumped in front with a lone tally in the first frame when Holbrook singled, stole second, advanced on a fielder's choice and scored on an error.

Singles by Marshall, DeBruin and Holbrook, two walks, a hit batter and four errors gave the Braves seven runs in the second and the ball game.

In the third inning Wertman doubled, DeBruin singled and both scored on a fielder's choice and an error.

Logan Elm put two more runs on the scoreboard in the sixth frame on singles by Kurtz and Justus, a fielder's choice and Pontius singled to plate both runs.

SIXTEEN players saw action for the Logan Elm nine.

Logan Elm will be at Amanda Clearcreek this afternoon, weather permitting.

Utah Stars Defeat Chaps, 113-107, In Playoff Game

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dallas coach Tom Nissalke says his American Basketball Association team went through four-quarters of a football game Monday night instead of the second game in a best-of-seven Western Division semifinal series.

"They play football out there," cracked the Chaparrals coach after taking his second loss to defending ABA champion Utah Stars, 113-107. "If Zelmo Beatty did the things on the street he does on the court, they'd arrest him."

Nissalke was referring to the number of fouls called against both clubs in the playoff game. Dallas had 37 fouls while Utah notched 26.

When the final whistle blew, Dallas had two players with six fouls and out of action, three with five fouls and two with four.

Countered Utah Coach Ladell Andersen: "This is the way they elected to go. It almost worked, but we're going to hit 80 to 90 per cent from the foul line. There should have been at least twice as many fouls as were called."

It was veteran super-Star Willie Wise who pulled the game out for Utah.

Down twice by 15 points, the Stars roared back in the final period, mostly on the arching jump shots of Wise, who ended with 36 points. He hit Utah's last six points for the victory.

Dallas, led by Donnie Freeman's 36 points, tries to get back in the series Wednesday and Friday at Dallas.

"They better be ready for a big game in Dallas," warned Nissalke.

Steve Jones, getting 18 points in the second half Monday night, backed up Freeman with 22. Zelmo Beatty scored 24 for Utah.

The Utah-Dallas game was the only basketball playoff game played Monday.

Pittsburgh Penguins Ready For Action

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Pittsburgh Penguins, having earned a National Hockey League playoff berth by the skin of their teeth over the weekend, aim to make the most of their opportunity when they open their West Division semifinal series against the Black Hawks at Chicago Wednesday night.

"They'll know they've been in the playoffs when we're finished," predicted Pittsburgh rookie Dave Burrows, unawed by the fact that the Black Hawks finished first in the West by a whopping 19 points.

9 Ohio Colleges Drop Freshmen Cage, Grid Teams

By GEORGE STRODE

Associated Press Sports Writer

Freshman football and basketball programs are dead at the nine Ohio major colleges.

An Associated Press survey shows the state's major schools will switch to junior varsity squads next fall, combining freshmen and upperclassmen.

The moves are a result of the new NCAA rule permitting freshmen to play varsity football and basketball, beginning with the 1972-73 school year.

Freshmen already play varsity competition in the other sports at major schools.

The rule was aimed at trimming rising athletic budgets and Ohio's three independent schools, Dayton, Cincinnati and Xavier, will take advantage of it.

The trio will have no freshman or jayvee football squads, but lean toward jayvee basketball teams.

"Instead of two teams and 110 people in football," Dayton athletic director Tom Friericks said, "we'll now have one team and 72-75 players."

Friericks said Dayton will save $45,000 on its football grants-in-aid, which have been sliced from 70 to 55. "Each one costs us $3,000," he said.

The Big Ten and Mid-American are expected to decide jayvee team status for their members at conference meetings in May.

Ed Weaver, Ohio State athletic director, doesn't believe the new freshmen rule will cut costs at a major football power such as the Buckeyes.

"I don't see any cost savings," he said. "We'll still have 120 football players at all times."

Cincinnati athletic director George Smith said the regulation has helped recruiting.

"There is some feeling among the newcomers that they'll be able to help the varsity as substitutes," Smith said.

Jack Murphy, who lost 19 seniors from his Toledo team with the nation's longest football streak of 35 victories, disagreed.

"With all of our graduation losses," Murphy said, "it will take a very exceptional athlete, a very mature person to make the varsity."

Woody Hayes, Big Ten football coaching dean in his 22nd Ohio State season, worries about the academic side and maturity.

"It will put enormous pressure on kids academically," said Hayes. "A lot of youngsters can't settle down in their studies as soon as they should."

"We also feel freshmen will not be as mature physically as upper classmen, and they may get hurt more," Hayes said.

Jim McCafferty, Xavier athletic director and its former basketball coach, thinks the new rule will help freshmen grades.

"We believe they will study harder and do better academically if they think they have a chance to be out there playing on the varsity," McCafferty said.

Despite the new regulation, coaches see few freshmen cracking the varsity lineups.

"Maybe a place kicker, punter, split receiver or running back with speed could do it in football," Murphy said.

"It's quite a jump in basketball, too, because of defense," said Ohio University's Jim Snyder, the dean of the Mid-American basketball coaches.

"A player who has scored a lot in high school must play more defense in college," Snyder said.

Fred Taylor of Ohio State, president of the National Association of Basketball Coaches, sees another bonus to the rule.

"If we have a jayvee schedule," Taylor said, "some of the guys sitting on the varsity bench can develop against outside competition."

The rule will have no effect on the 36 Ohio schools in the NCAA college division or the NAIA since they already play freshmen in all sports.

CHS Golfers Drop Meet To Bears, Lions

Upper Arlington defeated Circleville and Washington C. H. in a triangular golf match Monday at Pickaway Country Club.

Circleville dropped a 12-1 decision to Upper Arlington and lost 11-2 to the Blue Lions. The Golden Bears upended Washington C. H. 11-2 to take all the honors.

Greg Williams gained the Tigers' only point against the Golden Bears as he fired a 44-42-86, Bob Downey had 45-45-94, Ken Yamarick shot 42-45-87 and J. C. Timberlake had 52-52-104.

John Awe paced Upper Arlington with 36-37-73 for three points; Mike Sohn, 38-44-82, two points; Lar Galloway, 38-36-74, three points and Jay Hodson, 40-36-76, three points.

AGAINST Washington C. H., Greg Williams had 41-44-85, one point; Bob Downey, 47-45-92; Ken Yamarick, 42-45-87, one point and J. C. Timberlake, 52-52-104.

For the Blue Lions, Rob Herron fired 43-41-84, two points; Bill Junk, 42-39-81, three points; Jerry Gibbs, 45-41-86, two points and Marc Haugen, 50-46-96, three points.

The reason for the difference in the Tigers' scores was the fact they played 27 holes, first nine against Washington C. H., second nine against the Lions and Arlington and the third nine against the Golden Bears.

Circleville will play at Groveport Wednesday.

CHS Booster Club To Meet Wednesday

Circleville High School Athletic Booster Club will meet 8 p.m. Wednesday at the high school cafeteria.

Parents of all junior high and high school students and all coaches are encouraged to attend the meeting.

Gene Littler Eyes Career, Cancer Fight

SAN DIEGO (AP) — Gene Littler, who six years ago said he had resigned himself to the fact that he wasn't going to be the world's greatest golfer, isn't resigning himself to the fact that cancer may have ended his professional playing days.

"We're all holding good thoughts," he said on the eve of surgery at Mercy Hospital today. He has cancer of the lymph glands.

Littler, 41, said a malignant tumor was removed from under his left arm March 15 and now doctors want to see if the disease has spread.

"It's highly unpredictable," the former winner of the U.S. Open said Monday. "They may not find anything. The test results have been pretty good so far."

Littler's wife, Shirley said, "All the signs are good. We're very hopeful, very confident."

But Littler said a question marks hangs over his 18-year career.

"There is a good chance it may interfere permanently with my golf, though nobody really knows," he said during an interview. "Nobody has gone through this operation before, then tried to play tournament golf. I'll be able to play golf again, but the question is, 'Can I play tournament golf?'"

Littler, who won the U.S. Open in 1961 and the U.S. Amateur in 1953, is known on the pro tour as a quiet, modest player who keeps his emotions in check and doesn't court the press. He covets his home life and his hobby of tinkering with antique automobiles.

Littler said he is back with the Cleveland Indians after a four-month absence, and the outfield picture looks much brighter today than it has at any time since spring training opened.

Captain Easy is the name Cleveland fans gave slugging outfielder Roy Foster, in part for his smooth and easy swing and in part for his long-ball threat that always seemed to come in clutch situations.

The right-handed batter batted .268 with 23 homers and 60 RBIs in 1970, his rookie season, but then was racked by injuries that curtailed his production to 18 homers and 45 RBIs, most of them coming in the last two months of the season.

Then to the surprise of most baseball observers, the power-hitting Foster was dealt off to the Rangers in December in a six-player deal in which Cleveland acquired outfielder Del Unser and reliever Denny Riddleberger.

Manager Ken Aspromonte says, however, that Foster won't move into the starting lineup immediately because of the fine performance this spring of rookie Buddy Bell. But as Aspromonte says: "I'll be up to Bell to keep the job."

The acquisition Monday of Foster and outfielder-first baseman Tom McCraw for the Rangers for outfielder Red Ford gives the Indians some much-needed experience in the outfield to team with Unser and Alex Johnson.

Middle linebacker Willie Lanier of the Kansas City Chiefs played at 240 pounds last season.

Braves Crush Flaget For Third Win, 12-1

Scoring seven runs in the second inning, Logan Elm gained its third straight win of the season as they blasted Bishop Flaget, 12-1, in a game played Monday on the Braves' diamond.

Again it was the combination of strong hitting and fine pitching that put another win in the record book of Coach Vic Pontius and his Redmen.

The Braves rapped the ball for 10 hits to back up a good pitching effort on the part of Gary Francis and Rick Blankenship. Francis hurled six innings, allowed two hits, walked four and fanned 15 Panther swingers. Blankenship pitched the final inning, didn't allow a hit, walked two and struckout three.

Bishop Flaget committed seven errors in the contest while the Braves misplayed the ball on one occasion. F. Sander was the losing hurler in the game.

MIKE Holbrook and Steve DeBruin paced the Braves with a pair of singles apiece, Gary Wertman rapped a double and Scott Pontius, Francis, Doug Marshall, Ken Kurtz and Greg Justus each added a single to the Braves' attack.

Flaget tallied its lone run in the fifth inning when singles by Bob Fries and Bill Whalen, coupled with a pair of walks, forced in the run.

The Braves jumped in front with a lone tally in the first frame when Holbrook singled, stole second, advanced on a fielder's choice and scored on an error.

Singles by Marshall, DeBruin and Holbrook, two walks, a hit batter and four errors gave the Braves seven runs in the second and the ball game.

In the third inning Wertman

Jack McCloskey New Trail Blazers Coach

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — Jack McCloskey has given up trying to turn Wake Forest into a contender in the Atlantic Coast Conference and taken on the task of coaching the hapless Portland Trail Blazers in the National Basketball Association.

The Blazers ended their two-month search for a coach Monday by hiring the 46-year-old McCloskey.

Utah Stars Defeat Chaps, 113-107, In Playoff Game

SALT LAKE CITY (AP) — Dallas coach Tom Nissalke says his American Basketball Association team went through four-quarters of a football game Monday night instead of the second game in a best-of-seven Western Division semifinal series.

"They play football out there," cracked the Chaparrals coach after taking his second loss to defending ABA champion Utah Stars, 113-107. "If Zelmo Beaty did the things on the street he does on the court, they'd arrest him."

Nissalke was referring to the number of fouls called against both clubs in the playoff game. Dallas had 37 fouls while Utah notched 26.

When the final whistle blew, Dallas had two players with six fouls and out of action, three with five fouls and two with four.

Countered Utah Coach Ladell Andersen: "This is the way they elected to go. It almost worked, but we're going to hit 80 to 90 per cent from the foul line. There should have been at least twice as many fouls as were called."

It was veteran super-Star Willie Wise who pulled the game out for Utah.

Down twice by 15 points, the Stars roared back in the final period, mostly on the arching jump shots of Wise, who ended with 36 points. He hit Utah's last six points for the victory.

Dallas, led by Donnie Freeman's 36 points, tries to get back in the series Wednesday and Friday at Dallas.

"They better be ready for a big game in Dallas," warned Nissalke.

Steve Jones, getting 18 points in the second half Monday night, backed up Freeman with 22. Zelmo Beaty scored 24 for Utah.

The Utah-Dallas game was the only basketball playoff game played Monday.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Interest in the Midwest for concrete canoe racing appears to be growing.

Teams from 14 universities and colleges have paid their $5 registration for the World Series of Concrete Canoes to be held April 29 at Eagle Creek Park in Indianapolis.

The University of Illinois team is the defending champion, defeating sole challenger Purdue last spring. Illinois won the best of 3-of-5 heats when Purdue paddlers failed to execute an inadvertent man-over-board drill.

It was the first race of its kind in canoes handmade of concrete mixed with an aggregate of perlite and troweled over a wire mesh frame.

Schools entering the race include defending champion Illinois; host Purdue; Indiana Institute of Technology; Marquette; Michigan State; North western; Ohio Northern; Ohio State; Tri-State, Ind.; Illinois; Chicago Circle; Michigan; Missouri; Toledo; Wisconsin; Wisconsin-Platteville; and Valparaiso, Ind.

"I urge you to send 25¢ now to protect your family with this $600 a month extra cash plan"

Art Linkletter

For first month's protection, mail Enrollment Form with 25¢ to get up to $600 a month tax free cash when you go to the hospital

You collect at the rate of...

$600 a month cash

when you require hospital care... for each accident starting the first day in the hospital, and for each illness, starting the sixth day—$20.00 a day for life, if necessary.

$300 a month cash

if you're 65 or over, for the first 3 months of hospitalization. This money is paid directly to you in addition to Medicare or any other coverage you may already have. After 3 months, if you are still in the hospital, you then receive...

$600 a month cash

thereafter—in addition to Medicare benefits—even for life, if necessary. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day.

$360 a month cash

when your child goes to the hospital for any accident or illness, when you have Coverage for Children—no matter how long the confinement may be. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital; sickness coverage begins the sixth day.

$600 a month cash

for maternity benefits when Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits have been added to the basic plan.

$400 a month cash

for a registered nurse at home if your doctor has you hire one within five days following a covered hospital confinement of five days or more for as long as you were hospitalized—up to one year.

UP TO $2,000 cash for complete accidental loss of limbs or eyesight. If you suffer complete loss of a hand or foot or the sight of an eye within 90 days of the accident, you collect $1,000—and $2,000 for the loss of two limbs or the sight of both eyes.

$2,400 a month cash

$1,200 a month for you—and $1,200 a month for your spouse... when an accident hospitalizes covered husband and wife at the same time. Yes, you collect $2,400 A MONTH in all (when under 65) while both are in the hospital—even for life.

We pay all premiums that come due for you and all covered members of your family should you—the policyowner—be hospitalized for eight consecutive weeks or more. And you don't have to pay us back.

We guarantee never to cancel your protection no matter how many claims you have... or how old you become... or for any reason whatsoever. Only you can cancel.

We guarantee never to raise your low rates because of how old you become... or how many claims you have... but only if there is a general rate adjustment on all policies of this class in your entire state.

NO AGE LIMIT • NO MEDICAL EXAM TO ENROLL • NO SALESMAN OR AGENT WILL CALL

OVER 30 million people will be admitted to a hospital this year! It could be you—or some beloved member of your family—tomorrow... next week... next month. Sad to say, very few families have anywhere near enough coverage to meet today's soaring hospital costs. These costs have more than doubled in just a few short years.

Stop for a moment. Think how much a long stay in the hospital will cost you or a loved one. How would you ever pay for costly, but necessary, X-rays, doctor bills, drugs and medicines? What would you do if your pay check stopped, but living expenses kept going on the same as ever? The same rent, phone, food, all the day-to-day expenses that never stop.

What is the average breadwinner to do? We believe we have the answer in this National Home plan.

Pays you $600.00 a month tax-free cash when you are hospitalized.

Now you can have $600.00 cash coming in every month—beginning the very first day you enter the hospital due to an accident, and the sixth day for confinements due to sickness. You collect $600.00 a month, even for life, if necessary.

The cash is paid directly to you in addition to whatever you may receive from your insurance with any other companies. Use the money as you see fit—for hospital or doctors' bills. To replace savings or cover household expenses. Every dollar is tax-free.

How much does $600.00 a month protection cost you? Only 25¢ covers you and your entire family for the first month. After that you may continue at our regular low rates.

Pays you $360.00 a month cash when any unmarried dependent child is hospitalized.

When you choose Coverage for Children, this National Home plan pays you at the rate of $360.00 a month cash when one of your children is hospitalized. Pays for as long as necessary! Children are covered for accidents from the first day and for sickness from the sixth day.

Pays you at the rate of $600.00 a month for Maternity Benefits!

If both husband and wife are insured for the entire period of pregnancy (and have added Coverage for Children and Maternity Benefits), you get tax-free cash to use any way you want. Yes, if a pregnancy, childbirth or even miscarriage puts you in the hospital for one day, five days, ten days—as long as necessary—you get cash benefits for every day of your confinement.

Pays you $400.00 a month cash for a Registered Nurse at Home.

How comforting it is to know that—after your stay in the hospital, if you've been there five days or more for which you received benefits—you can return home to recuperate and yet not be a burden to your loved ones. If your doctor has you employ a full-time registered nurse within 5 days after you come home, we'll pay you benefits at the rate of $400.00 a month. And your benefits continue for the same number of covered days that you were in the hospital—even up to 12 full months.

Double Cash Accident Benefit.

When you and your insured spouse are hospitalized at the same time for an accidental injury, this National Home plan pays each of you DOUBLE CASH. $1,200.00 a month apiece. That's $2,400.00 in cash payments every month (when under age 65) starting the day you enter the hospital for as long as you both remain there.

Waiver of premium benefit.

After 8 continuous weeks of confinement, your premiums that come due are taken care of by National Home. And your protection continues just the same as if you were paying the premiums yourself.

National Liberty Commended in the U.S. Congressional Record

National Liberty Corporation, parent of National Home Life Assurance Company, has been commended in the United States Congressional Record for bringing low-cost insurance to the general public: "With the highest public interest at heart, the National Liberty Corporation group of companies combines reliability and quality of service with noteworthy price advantages. It is to be commended on its leadership and vision in this field of human welfare."

Dear Friend:

You know me. I wouldn't recommend anything I didn't honestly believe in. And I think National Home's $600-a-month plan is just about the best additional financial protection you can give your family—especially in these days of rising medical costs.

That's why I'm happy to give this plan my wholehearted endorsement.

I've looked over the policy very carefully. I've made a point of getting to know some of the folks at National Home. And you won't find more decent, friendly people to deal with. I've seen the way they handle claims, too—quickly and generously. Believe me, when you need them, they'll be there to help you.

That's why I cannot imagine anybody passing up the chance to enroll in this health plan—especially when the first month's protection costs only 25¢.

We all know what a terrible thing it is to be hospitalized. But what a relief it is to know there's tax-free cash coming in when you need it most! Take my advice. Send the enrollment form now—before you forget.

Sincerely,

Art Linkletter

65 or over?

You collect benefits in addition to Medicare!

We have designed this plan as a valuable addition to whatever is paid by Medicare—or health insurance you may have with other companies. Regardless of the coverage you already have, National Home pays you at the rate of $300.00 a month for the first 3 months, and $600.00 monthly while hospitalized thereafter. Coverage for accidents begins the very first day in the hospital. Sickness coverage begins the sixth day. Both coverages continue for life, if necessary.

These are the only exclusions!

Your National Home policy covers every kind of sickness or accident except conditions caused by: war, or any act of war; any mental disease or disorder; pregnancy, except as provided under the Maternity Benefit provision; and pre-existing conditions which manifested themselves before start of policy (and even these conditions are covered after policy is in force for 2 years). You will be covered for care in any hospital, except a U.S. Government hospital or a nursing or convalescent facility.

Nationally known and respected.

This is the kind of outstanding protection you may have seen in Reader's Digest, Better Homes & Gardens, TV Guide, and other leading publications. The special plans offered by National Home are today helping policyowners in 46 states—and many foreign countries—paying benefits on an average of ONE MILLION DOLLARS a month. In addition, our Company has a RECOMMENDED rating from Best's Insurance Reports, one of the foremost insurance authorities in the nation.

Fast, Reliable Claim Service.

"We were most happy with the prompt way that you sent us the claim forms when requested. Your check for the week my husband was in the hospital was received within ten days. Thank you so much—it really helped in a time of need."

MRS. ROBERT H. ROBINSON, Miami, Fla.

"I took out the policy and had only paid two monthly premiums when I was unexpectedly put in the hospital. Was there 11 days and the National Home Life Assurance Company paid exactly what they had said they would. How happy we were we had taken the policy out."

DEWEY M. FAIR, Upper Sandusky, Ohio

Why you must act before the date shown on your Enrollment Form—just a few days from today.

Why do we give you so little time to enroll in this plan? Because this is a limited enrollment offer, we can open the enrollment only during a limited time period—with a firm deadline date for everyone. To provide you with this broad coverage at these rates, we must receive your Enrollment Form during the same period as all the others.

Here are your low rates.

The following chart shows how little it costs after the first month, to cover yourself, your spouse or any adult dependent. Naturally, at these low rates, we can issue you only one policy of this type. Each adult, 16 or over, pays the rate shown for his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium per Adult
16-44	only $3.45
45-49	only $4.00
50-54	only $4.40
55-74	only $5.10
75-79	only $5.85
80-84	only $6.50
85 and over	only $7.75

Only $1.80 more per month covers all your unmarried dependent children... from the age of 1 month through 18 years. Newborn children are covered automatically at the age of one month—at no additional cost! And then, if you wish, just add $1.35 monthly to that, and you're covered for Maternity Benefits, too!

NOTE: The regular monthly premium shown (for age at time of enrollment) will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled in this National Home plan, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, on all policies of this class in your entire state.

Act now—"later" may be too late!
Send just 25¢ for first month's coverage.
TIME IS PRECIOUS! Act quickly. (No salesman will call.) Get your Enrollment Form into the mail today—because once you suffer an accident or sickness, it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any cost. That's why we urge you to act today—before the unexpected happens.

Money-Back Guarantee

We will send your National Home policy by mail. Examine it carefully. If you decide that you don't want to continue as a member of this plan, return the policy within 15 days of the date you receive it, and we will promptly refund your money.
